

Novel H1N1 Influenza Death Report

Maricopa County Department of Public Office of Epidemiology

Novel H1N1 Deaths – Maricopa County Residents (April 2009 through 03/20/10)

	Number	Percent
Number of H1N1 deaths – Total	76	100%
Deaths among pregnant women	4	5%
Deaths among children (18 and under)	13	17%
Deaths among adults aged 19 to 49	31	41%
Deaths among adults aged 50 and older	32	42%
Deaths among individuals of unknown age	0	0%
Deaths among individuals with at least one risk condition (including asthma, cancer, chronic heart disease, other lung disease, immunosuppression, neurological disease, obesity, and diabetes)	66	87%
Deaths among individuals with no risk conditions	9 *	12%
Deaths among individuals whose risk conditions were unknown	1	1%

H1N1 Deaths by Week – Maricopa County

	Number
Deaths determined prior to Week 3	72
Deaths determined Week 4 ((Jan 24 – Jan 30)	2
Deaths determined in Week 5 (Jan 31 – Feb 6)	1
Deaths determined in Week 6 (Feb 7 – Feb 13)	0
Deaths determined in Week 7 (Feb 14 – Feb 20)	1
Deaths determined in Week 8 ((Feb 21 – Feb 27)	0
Deaths determined in Week 9 (Feb 28 – Mar 6)	0
Deaths determined in Week 10 (Mar 7 – Mar 13)	0
Deaths determined in Week 11 (Mar 14 – Mar 20)	0

Note: Deaths are assigned to the week in which the death was determined to be a H1N1-related death.

*Two deaths were pregnant with no other underlying medical conditions.